Central India's Largest Agri Summit

A PLATFORM BUILT ON CONVICTION

Conceived and championed by Shri Nitin Gadkari, and rooted in the philosophy of Educate. Encourage. Empower., Agrovision has spent 16 years working alongside farmers - listening, learning, and translating their realities into solutions with genuine on-ground impact: better yields, wider market access, and faster adoption of modern practices. With every edition, farmer feedback has shaped the platform, growing it not just in scale but in relevance, drawing every stakeholder across the value chain - farmers, policymakers, researchers, industry leaders, startups, financial institutions, and rural enterprises - around one shared purpose: the transformation of Indian agriculture.

In its 17th edition, Agrovision steps into a defining new chapter - where AI-driven agronomy, smart farming technologies, and integrated agri-ecosystems move from promise to practice.

IMPACTFUL OUTREACH NUMBERS

- 34 Lakh+ farmers visited Agrovision
- 4 Lakh+ farmers participated in knowledge-sharing workshops
- 800+ expert speakers conducted workshops across various domains
- 150+ farmers shared success stories to inspire and replicate models of excellence
- 450 workshops organized to address region-specific challenges and solutions
- 9,000+ delegates attended specialized agri-conferences
- 400+ policymakers engaged in dialogue for shaping inclusive agri-policies
- Participation from 25 states, reflecting pan-India relevance and reach

Shri Nitin Gadkari

Union Minister for Road Transport & Highways, Govt. of India
Chief Patron, Agrovision

“The future of Indian agriculture is about growing smarter. AI, precision technologies, and integrated agri-systems are no longer the future; they are the tools our farmers need today. Agrovision has always been the bridge between innovation and the farmer. In its 17th year, that bridge must carry us further - toward a self-reliant, technology-empowered farming nation.”
